Harvest Thanksgiving

The harvest season is with us again. We can delight in seeing ripened fruit in the orchards & hedgerows and wonder at the rich palette of Autumn colours.

For those who make their living on the land, it's a much more serious business, of course; when things go well, relief replaces anxiety and hard work is rewarded with the satisfaction of another year safely accomplished.

In our churches, our Harvest Festivals give us the opportunity to gather together and thank God for all "Good gifts around us". If we're fortunate enough this year, we might even share in a Harvest Supper!

It's good to give thanks to our amazing Creator God, but I wonder if we only think about it at Harvest time? Writing this reminded me of a story I read many years ago ...

A man spent most of his life longing to go to Heaven. Eventually he died and an angel took him on a guided tour of majestic mountains, sparkling streams, fern-filled forests & green meadows. Children were laughing & playing, and music filled the air.

"So this is Heaven?" said the man. "How wonderful!"

"No," replied the angel, "this is the world you lived in - and never saw ..."

May God open our eyes and ears to the boundless riches that we experience every day and give thanks.

Ann Nicholas

Thank You!

I would like to thank Rev. Anne, The Churchwardens and everyone in the Cross Country Parishes for the beautiful Pink Orchid, Garden vouchers and cards I received at the joint Service at St. Mary's Acton at the end of August. I "retire" at the end of September from my job as Parish Secretary to have more time with my growing family. I have really enjoyed my job and working with such lovely people! Thank you again and I will keep in touch!

With love and best wishes,

Helen Harper

Acton Music Group

A small group of us has been meeting recently at the Church to remind ourselves what a challenge playing live music can be, but also how enjoyable. We would like to invite any instrumentalists to join us, particularly if you have been learning or re-learning an acoustic instrument over the last year. This is not a highbrow group; we are all learning. The aim is to encourage each other in a friendly, informal setting. If you're interested, give me a ring.

A note

From Bishop Mark

Dear friends,

Welcome Services for Bishops Julie and Sam

At their installation service at the Cathedral on 5th September, Bishop Julie and Bishop Sam began their public ministries as the Bishop of Birkenhead and the Bishop of Stockport respectively. We are keen, though, to welcome them slightly less formally, to pray for them, and to begin to get to know them better, and so we are running a welcome service for each of them, and you are invited.

We will do this at two services:

Thursday, 14th October, 7pm at St. George's, Stockport

Monday, 18th October, 7pm at Christ the King, Birkenhead

These services are open to all to attend and we hope that the gathered congregation will reflect the diverse nature of our diocese.

I hope that these services will be well attended and so to help us manage numbers safely in this COVID season, if you wish to attend, it will be necessary to book a place through Eventbrite. For those who are unable to attend in person, the services will be streamed and links to these streams will be made available through the E-Bulletin and diocesan website. Please share this invitation with everyone in your churches so that word gets out about this significant moment in the life of our diocese.

We are, though, keenly aware of the bustling life of our diocese and the bulging nature of our diaries, so if you find that you are already committed to other events and services on these days, please still join with us by praying on these days for the ministry of Bishops Julie and Sam. Bishops are ordained, as you will know, to be shepherds of Christ's flock and guardians of the faith of the apostles, proclaiming the gospel of God's kingdom and leading his people in mission. As Bishops Sam and Julie begin this ministry, it is right that we commit to praying for them and ourselves as we yearn to see God's Kingdom come and grow.

With my prayers and my gratitude for yours as we continue to partner in Christ,

† Mark
